Table Topics Master

When introduced by the Toastmaster, come to the lectern and acknowledge the Toastmaster, fellow toastmasters and guests.

Briefly explain the role of Table Topics.

- Table Topics is the impromptu speaking session of a Toastmasters meeting. Individuals respond to questions asked by the Table Topics Master with unrehearsed mini-speeches.
- Table Topics is specifically designed to develop four essential communication skills:
  1. Listening
  2. Thinking
  3. Organizing
  4. Speaking

The Table Topics Procedure is as follows:

1. I will ask the question.
2. I will call on an individual.
3. I will repeat the question, if necessary.

Order to call speakers:

Ask Guest(s) before beginning if they would like to participate.

1. People without roles
2. General Evaluator
3. Ah-Counter/Grammarian
4. Toastmaster
5. Guests (if they agreed in advance)
6. Prepared Speakers
7. Evaluators
8. Anyone else

The speaker will respond with a 1 - 2-minute mini-speech. Let's get started!!

Topic (Have a minimum of 5 topics – may do less or more depending on time)	Speaker

- Re-cap who were the Table Topic Speakers
- Return control to the Toastmaster