

40 Guests in 4 Minutes

Here's a quick way to jog your memory of people you could invite to your Toastmaster Club. Don't be disappointed if some guests cannot attend. Sometimes an invited guest doesn't attend, but perhaps they will come to a future meeting, even if they aren't interested, that person might give the invitation to a friend or co-worker who would – so invite everyone you think of! Don't prejudge, you might be surprised!

Now grab a pen and try the following exercise—you'll be surprised how quickly your list grows!
